STAGE MANAGER

The Stage Manager is in charge of all backstage happenings and works under the direction of the Producer and Technical Producer. It is essential that they desire, and are able, to be in constant communication with the Technical Producer. They are also responsible for organizing and securing side acts.

The Stage Manager will need to recruit a team of people to help them achieve all their responsibilities. The Stage Manager will not be physically moving backdrops, props, etc. Rather he/she will manage a team to accomplish smooth transitions between the show.

Prior to the show this position communicates with the dorm directors about backdrops and props for the show. The Stage Manager also organizes the transport of props and backdrops to the Bowl on the day of dress rehearsal.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Order, store, and distribute cardboard for backdrops.
- Provide drop cloths for dorms
- Bring all backdrops and large props to the venue for dress rehearsal
- Assist in running the dress rehearsal by knowing the order, where exactly props go, how people are entering/exiting the stage, how to change sets, etc.
- Organize and keep track of all backstage props during the show
- Direct and oversee everyone entering and exiting the stage (in coordination with, and receiving instruction from, the Technical Producer and his/her crew
- Enforce back stage policies (e.g. no paint at the Bowl)
- Make sure groups on deck are quiet
- Aggressively invite the campus community to audition for a side acts, encouraging creative and diverse talent.
- Organize all needs required for side act auditions (e.g. reserve venue, sound requirements, etc.)
- Communicate clearly all side act technical needs to the Technical Producer
- Facilitate a conversation with the Producer, Assistant Director of Campus Life, Technical Producer, and available Committee members to decide which side acts will make it into the show.
- Coordinate backstage cleanup after the show.
