FEDERAL STAFFORD LOANS, FEDERAL PLUS LOANS AND PRIVATE LOANS

The Westmont Financial Aid Office recommends that you pursue the Federal loan programs before considering an alternative loan.

Neither Westmont College nor the Financial Aid Office benefits from referring students to any lender. Although we offer a list of commonly used lenders, you are free to choose any lender that participates in the family Federal Education Loan and/or Alternative Loan Programs. Many lenders who are not listed below are still able to work electronically with us through our loan platform, OpenNet. There are also FFELP lenders who do not work electronically with OpenNet. They usually offer a more paper-laden process that may slow down the processing of your loan.

The lenders below were selected because they offer benefits to students or parent borrowers in repayment, provide debt management information and have reliable customer service. Their representatives keep in contact with Westmont regarding their policies and benefits.
