E. This course

☐ Has not been modified, but is being submitted to check its suitability

☒ Has had its syllabus rewritten to communicate the course’s contribution to GE

☐ Has had its contents modified to address the relevant GE issues

☐ Is a new course designed to fulfill the GE requirement

F. This course is being submitted as

☐ A Template. Applicable to courses with multiple sections which require only general training in the discipline. The submission should come from the department chair and should clearly identify what course content and what elements of the syllabus the department has agreed will common to all sections. Upon approval by the GE Committee, any course whose syllabus is determined by the department to meet the specifications of the template is approved to satisfy this area requirement. A copy of each syllabus should be forwarded to the G.E. committee for record keeping purposes.

☒ An Individual Course. Applicable to courses requiring specialized training in the discipline or are typically offered by a particular instructor. The course should be resubmitted and reassessed in the event of a change in staffing or syllabus.

G. Statement of rationale:

(Include a list of the area objectives. After each objective, list several course activities (lectures, readings, assignments, etc.) that address it. If it is not completely obvious, explain how the activities relate to the objective. Please attach a copy of the syllabus which has been annotated to identify the corresponding activities. Electronic annotations are preferred. Please use the Comment feature in Word to annotate electronic copies.)
