Proposal I: Set D- as the credit level for all G.E. courses.

Rationale:
- This will do away with the two-tiered grading standard found in the current G.E.
- This change will eliminate the double standard between G.E. courses and major courses. Major credit is granted for courses in which a student receives a D.
- For at least some faculty this will make the use of the D grade more acceptable.