NOMINATION TO FACULTY COUNCIL – EXPLANATION & BALLOT

In this meeting we will nominate faculty for membership on faculty council. In February we will elect members to faculty council. In March we will elect the vice chair.

Our Handbook requires that five full-time faculty members serve on faculty council. Of those five, at least three must be tenured, and the remaining members must be tenured, on tenure-track, multi-year contracts, or be a library faculty member having both voice and vote.

Current faculty council members include:

Lisa DeBoer (term ends Spring 10)
Deborah Dunn (term ends Spring 08)
Chris Milner (term ends Spring 10)
Rick Pointer (term ends Spring 08)
Glenn Town (term ends Spring 09)

Both Deborah and Rick are completing their terms of service.

So...we are electing two members for 3-year terms. You will be given a ballot and instructed to nominate 2 persons for each open position – a total of four nominations. The actual election takes place in the February meeting where the two top vote getters will be elected to faculty council.

The faculty council is sort of a “committee on committees.” Formal duties include:

- To provide a forum where the administration can seek, or faculty can volunteer, faculty advice or opinion on matters not on the agenda of other faculty committees.
- To provide a forum where faculty grievances can be aired and brought to the attention of the administration.
- To recommend to the Faculty, and to other appropriate bodies, changes in policy
- To establish the schedule of regular faculty meetings, and to call special faculty meetings as necessary.
- To determine the agenda of all faculty meetings.
- To plan faculty retreats.

Who May Vote in An Election? Faculty with rank of instructor, assistant, associate, and full professor with ½ time or more, excluding non-credit courses; person with faculty status, including director of library, director of admissions, registrar, and varsity coaches. (see, Handbook, p. 22, §1.4.3.1)
