Meal Pricing

Unless otherwise arranged with Conference Services at the time of contracting, all conference groups must have three meals a day (with the exception of first and last day.) No group may have less than two meals on full conference days. Contracts will reflect the minimum amount of meals to be charged. Individual conferees that choose not to eat a scheduled meal with their group will not be reimbursed.

Final minimum meal counts, if there are increases from the contracted numbers, must be received by Conference Services at least two weeks prior to group arrival.
