INTRODUCING APOLOGETICS:
CULTIVATING CHRISTIAN COMMITMENT

James E. Taylor
Westmont College

Table of Contents

Introduction: I Believe, but Help My Unbelief!
Part I: Apologetics and Commitment: The Method & the Goal
   Chapter 1: A Reason for the Hope Within: The Nature of Apologetics
   Chapter 2: Faith & Human Wisdom: Evidentialist Apologetics
   Chapter 3: Jerusalem & Athens: More Objections to Apologetics
   Chapter 4: A God-Shaped Vacuum: The Relevance of Apologetics
   Chapter 5: Ears to Hear & Eyes to See: Apologetics & the Heart
   Chapter 6: Critics, Seekers & Doubters: Audiences for Apologetics
Part II: Commitment to God: Watering & Weeding
   Chapter 7: The Global Village: Worldview Options
   Chapter 8: The Lord Our God is One: Monotheism
   Chapter 9: In the Beginning: Cosmological Explanations
   Chapter 10: What the Heavens Declare: Teleological Explanations
   Chapter 11: Why do the Righteous Suffer?: The Problem of Evil
   Chapter 12: A God who Hides Himself: The Problem of Evidence
Part III: Commitment to God in Christ: Watering & Weeding
   Chapter 13: Who do You Say that I Am?: The Person of Jesus
   Chapter 14: Lazarus Come Forth: The Miracles of Jesus
   Chapter 15: He is Risen Indeed!: The Resurrection of Jesus
   Chapter 16: The Word Became Flesh: The Trinity and the Incarnation
   Chapter 17: The Sheep and the Goats: Salvation and Damnation
   Chapter 18: No Other Name: The Problem of Religious Pluralism I
   Chapter 19: East Meets West: The Problem of Religious Pluralism II
Part IV: Contemporary Challenges to Christian Commitment
   Chapter 20: The Spirit of Truth: Commitment, Canon & Community
   Chapter 21: The Spirit of the Age: Critiques from the Social Sciences
   Chapter 22: The Origin of Species: Christianity and Natural Selection
   Chapter 23: The Dust of the Earth: Resurrection, Minds & Bodies
   Chapter 24: The Death of God: Postmodern Challenges to Christianity
   Chapter 25: It’s All Relative: Cultural Differences & Moral Universalism
Conclusion: Cultivating Christian Commitment