Homework: Theological Interpretation (rs131w) Spring 2009

Passage: ____________________ Date: ___________ Name: __________________________

1. Read the whole passage, and read especially closely whatever part we will be concentrating on.
2. Practice reading our passage aloud to increase your personal familiarity with it.
3. List your observations on that passage (features, connections with others, etc.):

4. List your questions about the passage:

5. How does further reflection, a closer reading of the passage, its contexts, course materials, or memories of what you learned elsewhere offer answers to your questions or explanations of your observations?

6. If we have secondary reading, write a question pertaining to it here: