

Program Goals with Program Learning Outcomes

Core Sensibilities: Students will demonstrate a critical appreciation of the roles that artists and their art have played, and continue to play, in our world, and a discerning grasp of the contours of our current art world, and a discerning grasp of the contours of our current art world.

- A. Students will evaluate the relationship between art and various social, political and cultural contexts
- B. Students will evaluate the ways in which the arts interact with various religious practices, particularly those of the Christian faith.
- C. Students will render judgments about contemporary art informed by their learning, and expressed with precision and charity. .