7:00 - AMBASSADOR REPORTS

Shelby Decker, WAC – WAC has been able to stay under budget. Upcoming events including midnight madness and Halloween event to keep students on campus. Advertising has been put back since computer in KSC is down. Also noted that student help on activities has been pretty low since they first started sending emails out. Abby on computer failure – “we might see a funding request to renew computers every few years”. Riley adds that WCSA would be happy to help and asks that Shelby continue to get the exec. Board informed.

Sarah Gowing, ICP - Just had ICP retreat last weekend. Possibly thinking about doing it again and making it a semesterly tradition. Also adds that women's only talk is coming up soon and that last year it was an incredible success with Toya Cooper. Sarah asks if anyone on the executive board knows how to hook up a laptop to the KSC printer. Paige notes that she is interested in hosting PC retreat at the St. Mary's retreat center.

Paige Clenney, PC/UI – This coming weekend is Juntos and Fall Breakway – 90 are signed up Juntos and 16 are signed up for UI. Emmaus Road application is opening up soon. Abby asks about Bread of Life and other programs under UI to which Paige replies that things are going well with the Westside ministry, conversation café and the Free Methodist Church.

7:17 - LIGHTENING ROUND/SHOUTOUTS

7:30 – VOTE: An Evening with Westmont Alumna and California State Assembly Member Kristen Olson Act of 2014.

The bill would include a proposal for $675.00 that would allow for 23 student guests to come and meet the assemblywomen as well.

Measure is adopted 2-0. Riley and Abby abstain.

7:40 – IT'S ON US

Riley says that we need to come up with tangible efforts for the It's on Us campaign. So far we have talked about this at length and now that it is in the paper, we need to do something. Board members suggest that we make a video that we send out in an email or show in chapel. Mike suggests that we get some well known faces on campus to which Riley agrees but says that does not want to be the only one involved.

Riley – talk to Ben Patterson about a chapel announcement, Ron Smith and Gayle Beebe.

Caroline – talk to Doug Clark about filming logistics.

Abby and Drew agree to provide additional support for the campaign in any way they can.

7:50 – TIME WITH TORI

Tori uses the last ten minutes or so to brief and prepare us before our meeting with the student senators. Riley advises Tori to just talk to people over the course of the next two weeks in order to “make WCSA more recognizable on campus”.

Meeting adjourns
