

INTERNATIONAL STUDENT CERTIFICATION OF FINANCES

2019-20

The purpose of the Certification of Finances is to help colleges and universities obtain complete and accurate information about the funds available to international applicants who want to study in the United States. Strict government regulations, rising education costs, and economic conditions have made verifying the financial resources of international applicants essential. Institutions do not have the option of deciding whether to verify the financial resources of their international applicants; financial verification must be made prior to institutional issuance of a Certificate of Eligibility (Form I-20 or DS-2019).

This form is designed to standardize financial information provided by applicants to colleges, universities, and U.S. consuls. By completing this form and returning it to the college or university requiring it, an applicant, if admitted, may obtain that college's authorization and issuance of a Certificate of Eligibility (Form I-20 or DS-2019). If parents and/or sponsors are unable to obtain a bank official's verification, it is recommended that institutions forward a copy of the International Student Financial Aid Application to the family for completion. The institution should attach a copy of this certification to the Certificate of Eligibility. U.S. consuls scrutinize the statements of financial resources given by nonimmigrant visa applicants. This certification will help such officials make their decisions and expedite visa issuance.

Return directly to the college providing or requesting this statement.

The space below is for optional use by issuing institutions for listing student's expected annual budget.

Westmont College is an undergraduate, residential college located in Santa Barbara, California.

Through academic scholarship, personal funding, sponsorship, governmental support or any combination thereof, applicants ought to be able to show $65,000 in available funds for the 2019-20 academic year. Actual 2019-20 costs are likely to be less than $65,000, but this amount ensures no delay in issuing the I-20 form.

Complete and return this form to the Westmont College Office of Admissions. A digital copy may be sent to admissions@westmont.edu. Hard copies may be mailed to Westmont College Office of Admissions, 955 La Paz Rd, Santa Barbara. CA 93108. USA.
