WARRIORS ARE CHAMPIONS
THEY WIN ON THE PLAYING FIELD AND EXCEL IN THE CLASSROOM.

Athletes benefit from beautiful, high-quality facilities Westmont’s beautifully designed athletic fields offer spectacular mountain and ocean views and attract elite athletes, including Olympians, who come to train. MBL’s Area Code Baseball holds its regional tryout at Westmont, where Major League scouts and college coaches select players for the prestigious five-day competition in August.

- Russell Cerr Field provides a natural grass home for Warrior baseball.
- Men’s and women’s soccer play on the state-of-the-art grass surface at Thompson Field.
- Men’s and women’s track and field teams and cross country teams compete at the well-equipped Westmont Track.
- Men’s and women’s tennis play in a garden setting at the beautiful Lynn Abbott Tennis Courts.

The new Stan Anderson Golf Complex serves the men’s and women’s golf teams.

Westmont’s athletic complex includes:
- McNitchon Gymnasium, home of the volleyball and basketball teams.
- The Westmont Pool, newly renovated for the women’s swimming team.
- The Wiegand Fitness Center.

I know that my teammates, my coaches and the athletic department care about me rather than just my stats. Westmont volleyball has left me with lifelong friendships that continue to inspire me to be better.

-Cassidy

Sports are a microcosm of life. At Westmont, I’ve developed a better understanding of the bigger picture of life beyond sports and how sports provide a platform for student-athletes and coaches able to demonstrate Christ’s love for us.

-Wyatt

Coaches
Outstanding coaches provide personal guidance on the field and in life. These caring and capable mentors prepare athletes for challenges facing them in athletic competition, in the classroom and in life after graduation.

-Endearing to excel as a student-athlete at Westmont, you must sacrifice your comfort zone as you challenge your body, mind and soul to maximize your talents both in and out of the athletic arena. You develop the skills, habits and character that will stay with you long after your athletic career has ended.
- Kirsten Moore, Women’s Basketball Head Coach

- Athletics is at its best when it is done in a community, where athletes become members of a village striving to play FOR one another. Sacrifice and surrender are more essential than talent and stamina. The sacrifice to the common cause and sacrifice for the good of the whole forms the team.
- Landon Boucher, Men’s Baseball Head Coach

- Financial Aid and Scholarships
Each Warrior team offers athletic scholarships to outstanding recruits. Coaches use a variety of criteria in awarding this aid. Athletes may also qualify for academic or need-based assistance through a combined financial aid package. Westmont encourages everyone to file the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA).

95% of first-year and transfer students at Westmont receive academic scholarships, talent-based and athletic scholarships and/or need-based grants.

The Mission of Westmont Athletics
Westmont College Athletics is a community committed to cultivating maturity of mind, body and spirit, through the rigorous pursuit of athletic excellence, integrated learning and Christ’s centered leadership.
