

Students return to campus and study and live safely in community for the entire year.

Donors contribute nearly $10 million to purchase the Westmont Downtown building.

During the year, the college community engages issues related to justice, reconciliation and diversity.

$1 million Lilly Endowment grant helps Westmont establish the Center for Thriving Communities.

Westmont hosted the sixth annual Advancing Women in Leadership Conference in recognition of March's National Women's History Month.

The women's basketball team captures the NAIA National Championship.

The virtual President's Breakfast with Nancy Koehn on March 5 attracts the largest audience ever.

Westmont raises nearly $1.7 million to construct a new engineering building to support the growing engineering program.

The arts at Westmont create innovative virtual concerts, exhibits and theatrical productions.

Students keep the tradition of Spring Sing alive with a dynamic virtual presentation.

Westmont holds a Commencement ceremony in person and celebrates the class of 2021 in a socially distanced service.

The COVID-19 Emergency Relief Fund raises more than $500,000.

Westmont celebrates its faithful donors who, in the past fiscal year, donate a record $32.7 million for new projects, student scholarships and academic programs.

Westmont's new Accelerated Bachelor of Science in Nursing (ABSN) program launches in spring 2022 pending approval from the California Board of Registered Nursing.

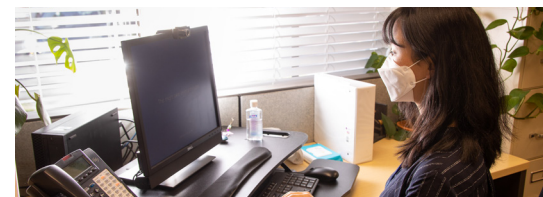

Westmont successfully manages COVID-19 on campus.

Recent college and university annual rankings continue to affirm Westmont as one of the top Christian liberal arts colleges in the nation.

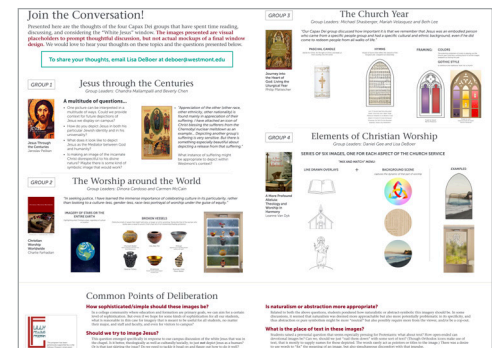

Westmont celebrates student research at an outdoor Student Research Symposium in April.

92% of Westmont graduates from the class of 2020 find a job or attend graduate school.

The Santa Barbara Symphony and Westmont announce a strategic partnership.

The college moves toward replacing the Voskuyl Chapel window.

Admissions hosts campus visits that exceed the 2018-2019 numbers of prospective students touring campus.

Westmont remains committed to students' spiritual growth and development and presents meaningful chapel programs online.

Westmont balances its budget for a record 37th straight year of operating in the black.