

DEC. 31, 2019 China reports a cluster of cases of pneumonia in Wuhan, Hubei Province

JAN. 21 The U.S. announces its first confirmed COVID-19 case in Washington state.

JAN. 26 First COVID-19 case in California reported

MARCH 4 California governor Gavin Newsom declares a state of emergency

MARCH 9 Westmont's spring break begins

MARCH 11 WHO declares the coronavirus outbreak a pandemic; the NBA cancels its season; Tom Hanks reports he tested positive

MARCH 12 Westmont announces remote instruction will begin March 16 and last until April 13, allowing four days to move to remote education; students told not to return to campus after spring break except to retrieve their belongings

MARCH 12 NAIA national basketball tournaments cancelled

MARCH 13 President Trump declares a national state of emergency

MARCH 15 First COVID-19 case in Santa Barbara County announced

MARCH 16 All NAIA/GSAC spring sports cancelled

MARCH 16 Westmont begins remote instruction. Approximately 120 students remain on campus for the remainder of the semester

MARCH 16 The Westmont Campus Pastor's Office holds its first remote chapel service over Instagram Live

MARCH 17 Westmont begins weekly Tuesday evening calls with President Gayle D. Beebe

MARCH 17 Westmont extends remote education to the end of the spring semester; Commencement is postponed; all Westmont events for the semester are cancelled

MARCH 18 Westmont's Music Department cancels the College Choir tour to Scandinavia that was scheduled for May 3-13

MARCH 19 Governor Newsom issues stay-at-home orders except for essential business

MARCH 23 Westmont donates 1,000 N-95 masks to Cottage Hospital

APRIL 6 Westmont's Music Department cancels the Orchestra tour to Vienna that was scheduled for June 22-July 1

APRIL 2 Westmont offers a free Steve Bell concert to the college community

APRIL 11 The U.S. surpasses Italy in the number of COVID-19 deaths, becoming the worst-hit country in the world

APRIL 13 About 80 million Americans begin to receive their COVID-19 payments

APRIL 14 Admissions hosts their first virtual Admitted Students Day

APRIL 25 Westmont hosts Spring Sing virtually, with videos sent in by dorms

APRIL 31 The spring 2020 semester concludes

MAY 2 Concert by Lecrae and Phil Wickham celebrates the class of 2020, current and incoming Warriors, and the extended Westmont community

MAY 8 Some states begin reopening; California moves to Phase 2 in its reopening plan with some businesses offering curbside service

MAY 11 The Westmont College Choir releases a video of the choir singing together from across the country

MAY 12 Westmont begins planning to bring students back to campus for the fall semester following all CDC, federal, state and county guidelines to keep everyone safe. Community update phone calls move to a monthly basis

JUNE 4 President Beebe holds a call-in informational session for the community

JUNE 30 Final internal task force plans due

JULY 2 The Westmont Ridley-Tree Museum of Art virtually releases "Matter + Spirit," a Chinese/American exhibition

JULY 7 President Beebe holds a call-in informational session for the community and reviews the finalized task force plans

JULY 22 The Westmont Ridley-Tree Museum of Art begins its "Art From Home" series, sharing weekly art activity videos for kids

AUG. 6 The Westmont Ridley-Tree Museum of Art releases "Adjacent: Westmont Graduate Exhibition 2020," featuring work from Westmont's 2020 art graduates, online

AUG. 7 Governor Newsom releases guidelines for higher education reopening in the fall semester

AUG. 11 President Beebe holds a call-in informational session for the community, announces that Westmont will hold the first four weeks of the fall 2020 semester remotely, with classes starting on campus on September 28

AUG. 25 President Beebe holds a call-in informational session for the community

AUG. 31 First day of classes for the 2020 fall semester

SEP. 28 Westmont looks forward to welcoming students back to campus

