What is Long Term Disability insurance?

Long Term Disability (LTD) insurance can help you replace a portion of your income for an extended period of time.

Eligibility Requirements

Long Term Disability:

All Active Full-Time Employees Excluding Presidents - All Active Full-Time Presidents working at least 30 hours per week are eligible to participate.

How is "Disability" defined under your Plan?

Disability or Disabled means that as a result of Sickness or injury you are either Totally Disabled or Partially Disabled.

Totally Disabled or Total Disability means you are unable to perform with reasonable continuity the Substantial and Material Acts necessary to pursue your Usual Occupation and you are not working in your Usual Occupation.

Partially Disabled or Partial Disability means while actually working in an occupation, you are unable to earn 80% or more of your predisability earnings. If you are Partially Disabled and have received a Monthly Benefit for 12 months, MetLife will adjust your predisability earnings only for the purposes of determining whether you continue to be Partially Disabled and for calculating the return to work incentive, if any.

MetLife will add to your predisability earnings an amount equal to the product of your predisability earnings times the annual rate of increase in the consumer price index for the prior calendar year. Annually thereafter, MetLife will add an amount to your adjusted predisability earnings calculated by the method set for above but substituting your adjusted predisability earnings from the prior year for your predisability earnings. This adjustment is not a cost of living benefit.

Substantial and Material Acts means the important tasks, functions and operations generally required by employers from those engaged in your Usual Occupation that cannot be reasonably omitted or modified. In determining what substantial and material acts are necessary to pursue your Usual Occupation, MetLife will first look at the specific duties required by your job. If you are unable to perform one or more of these duties with reasonable continuity, MetLife will then determine whether those duties are customarily required of other employees engaged in your Usual Occupation. If any specific, material duties required of you by your job differ from the material duties customarily required of other employees engaged in your Usual Occupation, then MetLife will not consider those duties in determining what substantial and material acts are necessary to pursue your Usual Occupation.

Usual Occupation means any employment, business, trade or profession and the Substantial and Material Acts of the occupation you are regularly performing for the employer when the Disability began. Usual Occupation is not necessarily limited to the specific job that you performed for the employer.

For a complete description of this and other requirements that must be met, refer to the Certificate of Insurance/Summary Plan Description provided by your Employer or contact your MetLife benefits administrator with any questions.

What is the benefit amount?

Long Term Disability:

The Long Term Disability benefit replaces a portion of your predisability monthly earnings, less other income you may receive from other sources¹ during the same Disability (e.g., Social Security, Workers' Compensation, vacation pay etc.).

The Benefit amount is 60% of your predisability monthly earnings.

What is the maximum monthly benefit?

The amount of Long Term Disability benefit may not exceed the maximum monthly benefit established under the plan, regardless of your annual salary amount. The maximum under this plan is $15,000.

When do benefits begin and how long do they continue?

Long Term Disability:

Benefits begin after the end of the elimination period. The elimination period begins on the day you become disabled and is the length of time you must wait while being disabled before you are eligible to receive a benefit. Your elimination period for Long Term Disability is 90 days.

Your plan's maximum benefit period and any specific limitations are described in the Certificate of Insurance/Summary Plan Description provided by your Employer.
