PERFORMER

Logan Hodgson is a fourth year senior at Westmont College and currently studies cello with Chris Ahn. Under the tutelage of his mother and grandmother, Logan began playing the cello at age three. Currently, he is a part of the Westmont Orchestra as well as a 2019 and 2021 winner of the orchestra's annual Concerto Competition. He won auditions to play in both the American Youth Symphony Orchestra and Young Musician Foundation's Debut Orchestra in the Los Angeles area. Logan has participated in numerous summer chamber music festivals both inside and outside the country, including El Festival Internacional Suzuki del Perú, Credo Summer Chamber Music at Oberlin Conservatory, and most recently, Bowdoin International Music Festival. With a rich background in chamber music, Logan has continued to actively pursue chamber music at college through collaborating with the other members of the Donzerly String Quartet. In addition to instrumental performance, Logan pursues his other majors at Westmont College: Engineering Physics and Mathematics.

HOW TO SUPPORT WESTMONT MUSIC

As we entered into the 2020-2021 academic year with the uncertain nature of the months ahead, the Westmont Music Department made an ambitious commitment to provide quality virtual concert programs each and every Friday evening during the Fall semester. Completely free of charge! If you have enjoyed the programs we have provided so far and are able to do so, please consider making a donation so that we can continue to present these high quality programs!
