“Experience is a hard teacher because she gives the test first, the lesson afterward.”

– Vernon Law, pitcher for the Pittsburgh Pirates

This exam is open book, open note, open mouth, open mind. Before you answer these questions, discuss them with those around you. Have fun. Try not to get stuck on a question. Debate, agree, disagree, and make a new friend.

Choose from the following options for each question. If possible, justify your answer in one or two sentences.

1: I know it’s false
2: I think it’s false + I know the reason for my answer.
3: I am unsure or don’t know
4: I think it’s true – I can’t explain my answer.
5: I know it’s true

God

1. ___ Our prayers can really change God’s mind.

46. ___ The main point of the church is to make the world a better place.

47. ___ The main point of the church is to save souls.

48. ___ Belonging to a church is more important than your national citizenship.
B. Answer the following questions.

49. What is the most compelling reason for either your belief in God, or your disbelief in God?

50. If you had to describe the Christian faith in only two or three sentences to someone who was only somewhat familiar with it, what would you say?

51. A significant part of this course is a ‘project’ that involves drawing on course materials. Prayerfully formulate and ponder three big questions you have, one or more of which might drive such a project. (Bear in mind that Jesus often doesn’t answer just the questions we ask.) These might take time to form, and may change over the course of the semester, but try to offer a few here:

   A:

   B:

   C:

52. What do you hope to come away with at the conclusion of this course? And what is that outcome worth to you in terms of time and energy?
